From the Pastor's Pen

A couple of months ago, Camille and I received word that the church where my father and step-mother have been members for nearly thirty years was closing its doors and the Trustees were dispersing all of their usable equipment to churches that could use any of it. Among the equipment was a set of handbells originally donated by my parents. So we wrote to the trustees and requested the privilege of receiving them. We suggested that they could expand our range of bells, we could share them with a neighboring church, or perhaps donate them to the Denton State School, which has expressed interest in starting a bell choir.

We figured that would be the last of it we would hear. After all who ever heard of a Baptist Church giving a Methodist Church such a significant gift. A few weeks ago, I received a phone call that the bells had been awarded to our church with no strings attached—we could do whatever we wanted to do with them. The only condition was that we had to come pick them up.

So three weeks ago, I rented a van and drove to Houston, spend a couple of nights with family, celebrated our daughter's birthday a week early, and picked up the bells...and six tables, and pads, and music stands, and table cloths! We were only expecting the bells, so this was a huge bonus.

Since then, our bell players have inventoried the bells and inspected them. There are 4 ½ octaves—we only had three, so it expands our range on both ends. Since the bells have been in storage for a decade or two, they are in need of professional polishing at about $7 a bell, and some need some minor repairs to the hard rubber that holds the clappers.

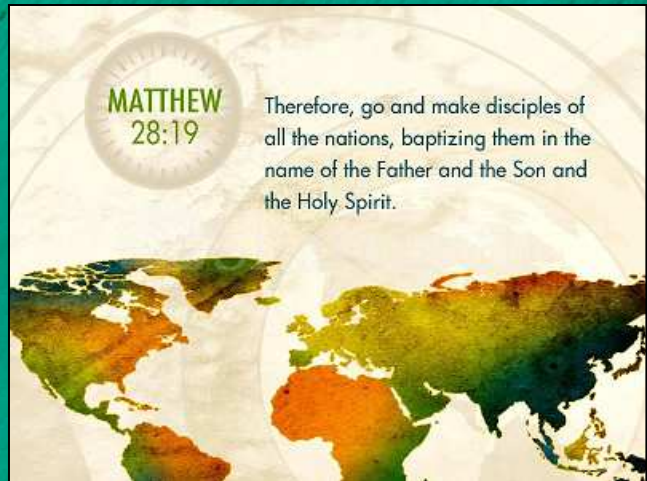

This gift would have been valued at several tens of thousands of dollars new when it was purchased. I don't even want to think about how much brand new bells would cost these days. So say a prayer of thanksgiving for the blessing.

For the next step, we could use your help in two ways, if the Lord is directing you. First we could use some donations to help pay for the polishing and refurbishing that needs to be done on the 49 bells. Second, we could use some more bell ringers! They practice at 5:45 on Wednesdays and now have some contemporary music, so playing at the first part of the second service can become a reality...all we need is people.

And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Come hear the Master's Storyteller as he presents a unique blend of story and song. If Elijah, a prophet from the Old Testament, appeared today, what would he look and sound like? Through the imagination of Wesley Putnam, "the Master's storyteller," you might meet Elijah as a Bronx cop, or see Daniel from the lion's den as a West Texas cowboy. These and other stories bring ancient characters to life and convey truth in a fresh, relevant way for our generation.

There will be refreshing times of praise and worship, as Wesley and his wife, Felicia, bring an exciting blend of old and new songs to help people express their love for God. This time of renewal is for kids too.

BibleQuest is a fast-paced program designed to make learning Bible facts and truths exciting for elementary students. You will be amazed at how much they learn in a short time. You won't want to miss a single night!
